Struggling with HOA issues? Learn how to manage and lead an HOA in this FREE training series

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The City of Glendale, in partnership with Mulcahy Law Firm, is offering a free four-week HOA Training Academy this February.

Serving on a homeowners' association board can be intimidating, yet to function well, boards need to have residents who are knowledgeable and willing to serve. Helping build that knowledge base and the pool of willing residents is the motivation behind this free HOA training series. Each of the classes in the series focus on a different topic including:

- The Business of the Community Association
- The ABC's of CC&R Enforcement
- Top 10 Common Errors Boards Make
- Creating a Successful Community through Proper Documentation

The series will run every Wednesday, Feb. 6-27, from 6 to 8 p.m. All classes will be held at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St.

Registration is open until Jan. 30. Early registration is encouraged as only a limited number of seats are available. To register, visit www.glendaleaz.com/education and click on "HOA Training" to print out an application, or call 623-930-2868 to receive an application by mail or fax.

To date, more than 500 people have taken the training to gain the tools needed to more effectively manage and lead their HOA. This training will be taught by HOA attorneys from the Mulcahy Law Firm. The classes are free to Glendale residents and only $20 for non-residents.
